College Adopts New War Orphan

Ithaca College has been made the foster parents of a little Korean girl in place of its former child, Kim, a war orphan.

In 1954, Ithaca College, under the leadership of the Women's Civic Committee, undertook the support of a Korean war orphan, Kim Nam Sun. The car-washing project of October, which was well supported by the student body, was for Kim's benefit.

Kim has now rejoined his brother who was recently discharged from the Korean army and is now engaged in farming. Because their living standard is adequate, Kim is no longer in need of outside assistance. He will always be grateful for the contributions of his foster parents during a needy time of his life.

Ithaca College, is continuing its work as foster parents by accepting a little girl, Kim Sun Soo, in place of Kim. Sun Soo has had an unhappy, disturbed young life. Her father died in 1949, of TB after six months illness, leaving his family unprovided for. There are two boys besides Sun Soo, Choong Soo (10) and Chun Soo (10). They all went to live with an uncle in Yangpyong after the father died and when the war broke out went with his family as refugees to Chongju where all of them suffered bitter hardships as the war went on. The uncle, a poor man, could not support another family as well as his own.

In 1953, the mother took the younger boy and came to Seoul to live with her own parents and their three children. Sun Choo and Choong Soo were left with their uncle in Yangpyong. Last month the mother learned that he had turned the children over to the YMCA, asking a friend to take them there because he could no longer support them. Sun Soo was then placed in the Sandong Widow's Home and when her mother found out where she was, she rushed there to get the child. She is happy to have her again, but her parents are poor people and there is much poverty in their home. Mrs. Kim wants to get Choong Soo back as well but will have to get a room to live in first. At present she and the children have to sleep where they can as the grandparents have only one room for themselves and their family.

PLAN aid for Sun Soo will give her mother some encouragement and enable her to get on her feet again. With winter coming, life will be even more harsh for the family unless outside aid is given to them.

Sun Soo, a quiet and gentle girl with a tender heart, is loved by everybody for her nice nature. She is in 3rd grade at school. Sun Soo, when asked what she wanted to be, replied, "A merchant, so I can make lots of money to make my mother happy."

The friendly interest and vital material aid of Ithaca College students will provide a valuable measure of security for Sun Soo, making her life brighter. Contributions for a Christmas parcel for Sun Soo should be taken to Dean Taylor's office as soon as possible.

Freshmen to Vote Dec. 13-14 In Annex

Freshmen elections will be held December 13 and 14 from 8:30 to 2:00, in the annex. The ballots will be counted in Dean Clarke's office, and the results will be posted on the annex bulletin board during the afternoon of December 15. The Student Council will hold a special meeting that evening to welcome and install the new group. All freshmen are urged to participate in the voting.

Delegates From Music Dept. Attend MENC Conference In Albany

Sandra Aronson, a junior in the music department, was elected secretary of the Executive Board of New York State's MENC last weekend at the Twentieth Annual Conference of the New York State School Music Association held in Albany Dec. 1, 2, and 3rd.

Miss Aronson was sent as junior delegate of IC to the conference along with Neal Yanchisin, senior delegate and member of last year's executive board. Each music college throughout the state sends two delegates to this conference.

Our two delegates attended the reception for college student MENC delegates Friday afternoon, Dec. 2. At this reception, the new executive board was elected; Miss Aronson being one of the five elected. At a later meeting of the new executive board, Miss Aronson was then elected to the office of secretary.

Other members of the Executive Board include Jim Blake, Potsdam State Teacher's College; Sylvia Glenski, Rosary Hill College; Joan Wieloszynski, Fredonia State Teacher's College; and Peggy Myers, College of St. Rose. Mr. William E. Mudd Jr. is Board Advisor.

This Board will represent New York State at the National Convention of MENC held in the Spring in St. Louis, Missouri. IC Alumnus Elected President of NYSSMA

Ithaca College Alumni also scored honors at the conference when Mr. Harold Henderson of Auburn, an alumnus of IC, was elected President of New York State School Music Association, succeeding Mr. Burton Stanley of Cortland, also an IC alumnus. The announcement of the results of the NYSSMA officers was made Saturday evening at the All-State (Continued on page 5)

Camerata Quarterly In Financial Trouble

The Camerata Quarterly is in financial trouble says Preston Spruance Jr., Editor-in-Chief. The magazine is unable to pay their printer's bill due to the low sales of the last issue. The magazine costs 50% more than it sells for, assuming all copies printed are sold. As of the last issue, less than 20% of the printed copies were sold. The first issue sold four hundred copies, the second issue 250 copies (the budget was in the red), the third issue, 85 copies.

What are the reasons for this lack of student interest? It is the editor's opinion that there are many capable writers on the campus. The purpose of the magazine was to provide a publication outlet for student creativity with the hope that the magazine itself would act as a stimulus for further writing. The contributions were plentiful in the Spring of '55 but next to nothing this fall.

The magazine has many merits. The advertising section has been revolutionized. The staff and the advertisers feel it is unique and effective. The staff feels the material is of exceptionally high caliber. (Continued on page 8)

College Radio To Add AM Station Soon

Rumors flying about the campus concerned themselves these past two weeks with the alleged fact that Ithaca College would soon add an AM radio station to its radio department.

Phi Mu Alpha Presents Recital Of American Music

On Wednesday evening, December 7, Phi Mu Alpha fraternity presented an Evening of American Music. After the Phi Mu Alpha Chorus sang Hail Sinfonia, Richard Cleghorn directed them in Clara Edwards' Into the Night, Willy Richter's The Creation, Ernest Charles' My Lady Walks in Loveliness and What Shall We Do With A Drunken Sailor arr. by Bartholomew. John O'Neil's Suite II for Clarinet Quartet was heard next played by the clarinetists Norbert Buskey, William Maurer, Nicholas DeAngelo and Alan Cadwallader. E. Ray Ulmer, pianist, was then heard in Three Tone Pictures, Op. 5, The Lake at Evening, by Charles T. Griffie. Modernity by Charles Haubiel and Intermezzo by Francis H. McKay was played by trombonists Phil Arcuri, George Powers, John Coe and William Collins. Gordon MacDonald, Clarinet and DeCosta Dawson, piano, presented Leonard Bernstein's Sonata for Clarinet and Piano (1942). A quartet composed of Elmer James and Elwood Peters, Trumpets, Norman Clo, Baritone and John Coe, Trombone, played Edmund Haines' Toccato. A brass group presented Gettysburg (A Suite for Brass Instruments) by David Uber. The First and Second Saxophone Quartets by Al Cechvala was heard played by Norbert Buskey, Richard Ianni, Nicholas DeAngelo and Alan Cadwallader. The final number on the program was Walter Piston's Carnival Song presented by the Phi Mu Alpha Chorus and Brass Choir under the direction of Richard Cleghorn. After the recital there was a reception at Phi Mu Alpha house.

Senior Professional Recital Given By Carolyn Bailey

On Tuesday evening, December 6, Miss Carolyn Bailey gave a piano recital in the Ithaca College Theatre. A pupil of Mr. George King Driscoll, Miss Bailey opened her program with Bach's Chromatic Fantasy and Fugue. Schumann's Carnaval followed marked: Preamble; Pierrot; Arlequin; Valse noble; Eusebius; Florestan; Coquette; Replique; Papillons; A. S. C. H.—S. C. H. A. (lettres dansantes); Chiarina; Chopin; Estrella; Reconnaissance; Patalon et Colombine; Valse Allemande; Paganini; Aveu, Promenade; Pause; Marche des "Davidsbundler" contre les Philistins. After the intermission Miss Bailey concluded her recital with Valses Nobles et Sentimentales by Ravel. The selection was in eight sections marked: Modere—tres franc; Assez Lent; Modere; Assez anime, Presque lent; Vif; Moin vif, Epilogue—lent.

In order to clarify the rumors and to inform the students, THE ITHACAN hastily dispatched a reporter to interview Mr. Robert Earle, chairman of the Radio Department.

In an interview, Mr. Earle stated that plans for an AM station were definitely in the offing. The purpose of the AM station (which is also to be a commercial station) would be to: 1) allow the radio students to gain the necessary experience required in the operation of a commercial station and 2) to reach the college students since there are a very few reached now due to the shortage of FM receivers.

As a matter of fact, Mr. Earle admitted testing the AM equipment and actually test-broadcasting over a week ago. Many more tests are in the offing, he said, and once they are completed, it is planned for the AM station to take to the air. It was also true that broadcasting could have started today except that in so doing, the station might over-radiate (that is, send out too powerful a signal) and thus run into conflict with the Federal Communications Commission. Rather than possibly violate their rules, the decision for more exhaustive tests was made and therefore, the station will not commence broadcasting on the date originally scheduled.

From the information that could be gathered, the call letters of the station would be WICR and would be located either at 600 or 650 on the AM dial. Commercials would be allowed—not necessarily for the advertising revenue (since the station is not in business to derive a profit) but to give the students experience in commercial broadcasting.

New Fraternity, Alpha Phi Omega, Planned Here

A new national fraternity, Alpha Phi Omega, is in the planning stages at Ithaca College. Anyone who is interested in becoming a charter member of this organization is requested to come to its first meeting on December 13 at 7:00 in room 11 in the annex. The only requirement is that interested persons must have been affiliated with the Boy Scouts of America in the past.

Alpha Phi Omega has numerous chapters throughout the United States which have aided their respective colleges and universities greatly. At the present time Alpha Phi Omega has an active organization at Cornell University. Louis Zinnanti, the temporary chairman from Ithaca College, has announced that Mr. Neil Beecher, a former member of the University of Maryland Chapter, now affiliated with the Cornell University Chapter, will be the guest speaker at the meeting. Mr. Beecher will explain the functions of the fraternity, and Louis Zinnanti will promulgate the specific plans that he has in mind to charter a chapter of the fraternity at Ithaca College.

Progress Report

This is the last issue of THE ITHACAN for this calendar year. This is only the fifth issue published during the current school year, but already many innovations have been made in the paper. Many more improvements are planned.

THE ITHACAN has been lately accused of being "radical" and a "scandal sheet." We welcome these labels for it shows one thing—the students are reading THE ITHACAN.

We have bemoaned the fact that there is a definite lack of school spirit here at Ithaca College. However, we didn't end with mere lamentation. We sought to create spirit. Our second issue, dealing with a "blast" against Radio Station WITJ, did precisely this. For a few days, it divided the students into two opposing camps. It caused reader interest. That was our only reason for "sensationalizing" and for violating good journalistic practices by editorializing on the front pages. It may have been unethical, but it worked! Our thanks are extended to Radio Station WITJ for their cooperation in that venture. We could not have had a more willing nor a more cooperative scapegoat.

Our editorials and articles have been concerned with the sorry conditions of the bulletin board, the noise in the library, the doings of the Student Council and a general report on the events taking place on campus.

We have a staff that is enthusiastic and loyal and we would like to take this opportunity to thank them publicly for their wonderful help in putting out the best ITHACAN in years.

However, ours is not an exclusive club. If there are any readers who feel that they may be of assistance in any way possible, we hope that they will feel free to make themselves available. We are always in the need for typists, photographers, reporters and writers. There are also many other countless duties to be performed which, because of space limitations, cannot be listed here. Our office is located under Williams Hall and we cordially invite all volunteers to visit us.

Our future plans call for expansion of the staff, the acquisition of better facilities, the publication of the paper on "rag" paper (similar to that used by the daily newspapers), and a greater array of photographs, news and interest stories. If the budget will allow it and if additional advertisers can be corraled, it is hoped that THE ITHACAN will become a weekly newspaper.

We feel that we owed this word of explanation to our readers and a word of thanks to our workers and members of the staff. As can be readily seen, THE ITHACAN is a progressive paper and is continually looking forward. The next issue of the paper must always be better than the last. With the continued cooperation of our staff, this will always be true.

Beat The Clock

One thing I.C. should be proud of is the efficiency of its clocks. No college in the country can boast of a time system such as ours. In one glance we can find out the hour in London, Hong Kong, Moscow, Tel Aviv, San Francisco, Chicago and many other world renowned cities.

The clocks in the music building are especially efficient in giving a first hand account of world time. The time piece in the library even comes close to telling the time in Ithaca. It really does . . . almost.

Someday, bet you it could happen, all the clocks at I.C. might show the correct time in Ithaca, New York. Gee, isn't that a novel idea though!

QUESTION: What improvement do you think should be made in order to facilitate the registration procedure?

Betty Abelow —
Liberal Arts

I think that registration should be done by classes: frosh, sophomore and etc. It would ease up the pressure that is put on everyone on this trying day.

Audrey Kaye, Physio
Seeing we have all pre-registered, I should think it would be a simple procedure to have a few people from each department stamp the cards.

Patrick J. Liverio
Business

In order to facilitate the registration procedure, I think that a set-up should be derived whereby you can enter one door and when reaching the back door, you'd be finished. Sort of on a mass production scale instead of running here and there and standing in line. One of the gyms would be adequate for such a project. The last one you'd see would be the treasurer and then you'd be done.

Tony Buemi, Phy. Ed.
Registration surely needs a lot of improvements, and from my experience of being in a registration lines I can honestly say this. Every year they tell us students that registration will be better but it usually ends up worse than the previous year. They should stick to the idea that they have set up: with students coming in to register alphabetically and administrative part seems satisfactory but they try to do it all in one day which usually causes the upset of the apple cart. Everyone jams at the door trying to get in when it is not alphabetically their turn. I think if they are to have success with this, they should allow us more time to register.

Szypula to Present Recital

John W. Szypula, will present a piano recital in the College Theatre this evening at 8:15. Mr. Szypula will be heard in Mozart's Fantasy in C Minor, K. 475 and Sonata in C Minor, K. 457 marked Allegro, Adagio and Molto Allegro. Following the Mozart group Mr. Szypula will present Brahms' Three Intermezzi, Op. 117 and Debussy's Preludes marked La Puerta del Vino, Danseuses de Delphes, Les tierces alternees and Ce qu'a vu le vent d'Ouest.

WITJ Announcement Box

On the left hand corner in the desk in the library sits a little wire basket with a card on it saying . . . WITJ ANNOUNCEMENT BOX. As of this date that little basket has been empty . . . so before the librarians begin to regard it as a dust collector how about filling it up with some information that you want publicized? This is a good opportunity to let the students of Ithaca College know what is going on and when. So let's see a little action!

AS I. C. IT

by Vern Hinkle

Dear Santa,

Little Orphan Annie opened her blank eyes on December 24 with a great deal of anticipation. The night before she had sent a letter to you asking you to please help the orphanage change its ways. The awake alarm rang, but Annie was already out of bed. Her room was soon in order, and she had time to whistle a little tune while she waited for the inspection battalion to march in and take her to mess.

As usual, Annie and the other orphans stood at the long, wooden tables in stiff tribute to the sacred, militant laws which governed the institution. The Sergeant of the Food carried in the rations for the morning. As usual, the dishes were dirty and the rations were inadequate. Annie knew that Daddy Warbucks spent an awful lot of money for her meals, but, somehow, here at the orphanage, the money didn't go as far as it did at home. Annie sighed deeply, and a blank tear rolled from her blank eye onto the stiff, red dress which she'd worn for years. But wait until Christmas, she consoled herself, as she marched to her room.

Christmas came, but you didn't Santa. Oh, things were better on Christmas day—this time the rations were adequate, and the dishes were cleaner than usual—but on December 26 things were back to normal. There on the mess tables were the same inadequate rations and the same dirty dishes, and, once again, a blank tear rolled from Annie's blank eye. She's beginning to wonder if there is a you, Santa.

Please, Santa, give Annie a dot for each of her eyes: either the dots that'll enable her to see things in a better light, or the dots that'll allow her to see what she can do about the situation.

Just a couple of dots for Annie, Santa. Nothing for me, thanks. I don't believe in you much anymore.

Love,
Sandy

NEW IDEOS

In the near future Ideo is planning to present a series of lectures and slide showings on various subjects after their regular formal meetings. This new policy is the result of President Lou Bako's (Phy Ed) idea to stimulate more interest in Ideo and its work . . . Estelle "Buzz" Kantos (Physio) is working on a new project for Ideo which is scheduled for just prior to Spring Vacation. This project is to provide various types of entertainment for hospitals and old age homes in the Ithaca area. This Ideo sponsored project will need the co-operation of every organization, fraternity, and sorority on campus. It would be a fine example of school spirit and co-operation if such a project is carried off. Those students interested should by all means contact "Buzz" at Egbert Hall or Lou Bakos, president of Ideo.

THEY WON'T TELL YOU, BUT

A while back, sophomore Dick DeBenedictus (Mus) wrote a musical show for a large charity in the New York City area. The show was well acclaimed by many of the local papers including "The New York Times." Just recently Dick and a friend of his who attends Yale University completed another show which has been submitted to Yale and is under consideration for production there . . . Recording professionally has been another one of Dick's accomplishments in the field of music, and congratulations are due to him for having been appointed conductor of I. C.'s up and coming Scampers Show of 1955. Dick has a wide range of interests. He has acted in many stage productions here at college and is also a versatile athlete. In 1953 for example, he was made quarterback of the Maine University frosh football squad but he decided to leave the team lest he injure the musical hands that will undoubtedly create a successful future for him.

I find that Carl "Buzz" Gillespie, the freshman class's answer to Marlon Brando graduated from the American Academy of Dramatic Arts in 1950 and has had a great deal of professional theatre experience. He has acted in productions of "Stalag 17", "Home of the Brave", "Pal Joey", "The Sea Gull", "Bishops Candlesticks", and "Light Up the Sky." . . . While serving in the U. S. Army in Korea, "Buzz" worked with such stars as Jack Benny and Errol Flynn. Among other things he is an expert fencer, a good piano player, and an able stagehand.

Charles J. McGaw, a distinguished teacher at Ohio State University and former I. C. teacher, has written a book entitled "Acting is Believing." It has been recently published and put on the market by Rinebar and Company of New York.

Does Mother Know That—

One downtown beer garden proprietor reports the average sale of between 350 and 400 gallons of beer per week. Most of it is consumed by "Joe College." Pray that the English department doesn't band together and ask each student to submit an essay on the subject of "What is Milk?"

Is it True That—

For unknown reasons I. C. librarians have ordered 2000 "Silence" and "Quiet Please" signs . . . Four housemothers are organizing a quartet. Their theme song will be either "Baby won't you Please Come Home" or "3 o'Clock in the Morning" . . . Recent controversy over I. C. boys neglect of I. C. girls has not helped the situation much. The merry road to Cortland is still lined with cars and hitchhikers every weekend . . . A master thief stole every sugar bowl from the Snack Bar. When will the bowls be returned?

Top Tunes—

"16 Tons" is the number one song in Ithaca this week. The nation's top tune is also "16 Tons." Hang on. Only 7 more days till Christmas Vacation.

This Picture Should Never Have Been Taken!

by Carl Pirko

See that car? Doesn't look like much now, does it? It used to be capable of high speeds and could transport the owner from one place to another. Well, it can't do that any more.

See that body? It's a body now. Just a few minutes before this picture was taken, it wasn't a body. It was a living thing. It could walk, run, laugh, cry and even drive—a car. Now it's a body. Cold, stiff and absolutely lifeless.

Every year around this time, college students all over the United States are threatened and cajoled and unceasingly warned to drive carefully. Slogans are hurled at the poor driver from every angle. But do they have much effect?

For instance, last year President

Eisenhower inaugurated S-D (Safe Driving) Day. There is no need to tell you what the purpose is or was. On S-D Day in 1954, 51 people were killed in highway accidents and on S-D Day this year, 65 people lost their precious and non-replaceable lives.

Accidents are expensive. Automobiles are ruined, insurance companies must pay the costs (which means that their premium rates must remain high), widows or widowers must find other ways to earn a living.

No, this picture should never have been taken. It's not pleasant to look at. And it's not a pleasant job to have to relate these facts to you readers. But someone must. Drivers need to be told time and time again to be careful, to drive within the limits imposed and to be courteous on the highways. A driver behind the wheel can become a dictator—very independent. No one can push him around. He's just as powerful as the next driver, even if the next driver is a visiting potentate from a foreign country. But for the moment, they're equal. As that cigarette commercial on television goes: "It's a psychological fact."

Psychology won't help keep you alive on the road if you're a poor or discourteous driver. If you are a good driver and are courteous on the road, you can be sure that you won't end up either on the psychiatrist's couch or on that cold hard slab in the morgue.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Your Student Council Reporter

by Carl R. Pirko

On Tuesday night, November 29, the Student Council met in plenary session to discuss many problems facing the students and organizations of Ithaca College.

This column will deal in some great detail with the operation of the Council and the conduct of its members. This detail is necessary since no students attend Student Council sessions.

At the outset, Dean Clarke, advisor to the Student Council, introduced a guest whose purpose it was to promote the procurement of blood from Ithaca College students at the time of the Bloodmobile's visitation here on February 28, 1956. The Red Cross desires Ithaca College to recruit donors for this date. It was explained that the requirements are that a student be at least 18 years of age in good health. However, all students under 21 must secure parental consent. This is not due to any risk involved but is merely a legal technicality. Before blood is taken, each donor will receive a physical checkup and will outline his medical history in order to insure the safety of the undertaking. The quota is 125 pints of blood and the speaker estimated that to obtain this amount, at least 170 volunteers should be recruited because many prospective donors fail to show up or are otherwise ineligible to donate blood. He attempted to scotch the rumor that blood is sold. There is no charge for blood and Dean Clarke pointed out that he personally knows of cases where Ithaca College students owe their lives today to the fact that blood was handy when needed and that no charge was made for it.

In the following issues, THE ITHACAN will present a series of questions and answers about the blood program which will help to clear up many of the misconceptions about the program and are calculated to encourage more donations.

Bulletin Boards

John Seeley, senior General College representative, then reported on the bulletin board situation. He explained that he had spoken with Dean Hickman and together they had formulated a few tentative rules. These include limitations on the size of signs, types and sectioning of notices. No signs may be posted other than on bulletin boards except for Fall and Junior weekends.

A committee consisting of Seeley will set up these rules and regulations. At that time, they will be published in THE ITHACAN. This project will undoubtedly involve the purchase of several new bulletin boards, therefore, Dean Clarke suggested that the funds of the now-defunct Men's Associated Congress be appropriated for that purpose.

Chaperone Problem

Carole Chapman, acting as proxy for Jane Patch, reported on the chaperone problem. It was discovered that Dean Taylor possess a list of those faculty members who have chaperoned in the past and that any organizations who wish to obtain chaperones may get the names from Dean Taylor at any time. There is no clear-cut policy on chaperoning at this time and Dean Clarke intimated that this problem will solve itself upon the issuance of a memorandum from Vice-President Dillingham to all members of the faculty. James McDonough and David Feldman were appointed to inquire further into this matter and report their results at the next meeting.

SNACK BAR

The Snack Bar issue next came up for consideration and the Student Council Vice-President Dick Cleghorn made his report. He stated that he had received several unsubstantiated charges and would inquire into them and report at the next meeting.

FROSH CAMP

Student Council President, Florence Baldwin, reported that Frosh Camp for 1955 is a closed affair and that all bills have been paid.

FRESHMEN ELECTIONS

Next on the agenda was the matter of Freshmen elections. At the meeting of the Student Council held on October 26th, a member of the Council was placed solely in charge of administering the election machinery. It is a well-known fact that the ballot boxes were stuffed and that the election of officers was held invalid by Dean Clarke. The Student Council representative admitted that he hadn't managed the election well, and asked the Council to allow him to seek help in sponsoring another election. The wish was granted.

At this juncture, the speaker then violated all rules of parliamentary procedure and addressed this reporter directly rather than the President and attempted to dictate to this reporter what would be published in THE ITHACAN. Needless to say, his demands fell on deaf ears and what you have read above is an account of what took place during the meeting and not what anyone was told to print.

A word of explanation is due here. Under Article 2, Section b of the Student Council Constitution, THE ITHACAN editor is allowed to appoint a reporter who will attend and report all matters pertaining to the Student Council. This reporter has no vote in the deliberations, but may take part in all discussions. Since, as was stated previously, students do not take the time to attend Council meetings, this reporter and THE ITHACAN feel it their duty to report everything that takes place within the Council chambers. We will not be dictated to by any individual or organization. THE ITHACAN will not be intimidated!

The freshman election was a sham election and a blot on the honor of Ithaca College. It should never have been allowed to happen and should never happen again. THE ITHACAN has not vote in the Student Council, but has over 1000 votes every time this paper is published. THE ITHACAN now casts all its votes for honest elections and capable officials to administer them.

STUDENT ASSEMBLIES

Student assemblies was the next topic of discussion. As reported in the November 4 issue of THE ITHACAN, Dean Clarke stated that the administration favored the idea of assemblies and the evening's discussion concerned itself with what the assemblies should consist of. Howard Feldsher suggested that one assembly be a public Student Council meeting. President Baldwin suggested that Dr. Job be invited to talk to the student body. She expressed the questions and doubts of many people by wanting to "know what's going on." She stated that many of the students will eventually be alumni and are desirous of knowing whether the College will move to the high school or to the campus site on South Hill and when.

The president then appointed a committee on assemblies composed of Will Traphagen (chairman), Howard Feldscher and Elaine Diamond.

POST-FACTO ELECTION OF EDITOR

The first item under new business was the post-facto approval of William Ruger as editor of THE ITHACAN. This was required in accordance with Section 3d, Article VII of the Student Council By-Laws.

CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS

W. C. C. proxy representative, Carole Chapman, then asked the Student Council to purchase a Christmas tree to be installed on the campus. She was referred to Dr. Dillingham by Dean Clarke.

MODEL U. N. AT ITHACA COLLEGE

Howard Feldsher then outlined his views on the recently-held Model United Nations Session (General Assembly) at Cornell University in which a number of Ithaca College students, including this reporter, took part. He claimed it was a very valuable experience and that Ithaca College should form an association for the same purpose. Discussion on this item was deferred because of the late hour but the president appointed Feldsher as a committee of one to contact other interested non-Council members and to make a progress report at the next meeting.

The meeting then adjourned.

As a service, THE ITHACAN now presents the names of the Student Council members and the organizations that they represent. Each class president is a member of the Council as well as a representative from Music, Health and Physical Education and the General College from each class. All members here named are voting members. Of course, there are no representatives from the freshman class. After valid elections are held, their names will be published.

Radio Review

Congratulations to Larry Rysling and Ed Cordell on launching their program, World in Folk Music, on WHCU. The show which has been heard on WITJ on Friday nights at 8:30 can now be listened to over WHCU AM or FM, on Saturday's from 2:00-2:30. This team, perhaps better known as Ev Slosman and Ed Gimzek, also produce many other shows... such as Tuxedo Junction, featuring music of Glen Miller, on Monday nights at 8:30. For the facts of what is going on, listen to Reporter at Large aired every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 7:25. Keep up the good work, Ev and Ed.

WITJ is keeping in the mood of the holiday spirit... many Christmas shows are being produced. If it's Christmas music you like we'll have it... and if you'd rather hear a dramatic story on Christmas we'll have that too... WITJ... 91.7 on the FM dial.

"Wouldn't Pamela be just as impressed if you phoned her?"

Just 'cause she's your big flame doesn't mean she can understand smoke signals. Sure they're impressive — but then so are grenade explosions. The best way to keep her burning for you is with regular telephone calls. She really gets "your message" when you phrase it phone-wise! And it won't bite into your sud's and pinball cash either. Because you get Bargain Rates to all distant points every night after 6—all day Sunday, too. So, before you're out of your mind because you're out of her sight and her mind—call her! (Call her "Kewpie," "Hey, you," or even "Stupid"—but call her by phone!) New York Telephone Company.

College Radio

It is planned that the operating hours of the station will not conflict with those of the Ithaca station—WHCU. During the winter months, WHCU terminates its AM broadcasting at 6:00 p.m. and the Ithaca College AM station would not take to the air until 7:00 p.m. There would be a slight conflict in the spring as WHCU is on the air until a later hour, but there is no difficulty expected. WHCU, Mr. Earle stated, has cooperated splendidly with Ithaca College in this matter.

Mr. Earle also promised that when the AM station is actually scheduled to commence operations, he will notify THE ITHACAN so that the student body may be promptly notified.

IDEO wishes to express many thanks to Mrs. Lillian S. Vail and her son who is now in the service. It was through these people that I. D. E. O. received the banners that are now on display in the snack bar. We hope that everyone will enjoy them as a part of decorations and leave them where they are.

IC Most Valuable Players

The Most Valuable player award winners were . . . Henry Hotaling and Don Diston. The awards will be presented to them at the first home basketball game, which will be played December 10, against Rider College. Be sure to attend the game and see the presentation of the M. V. P. awards.

DON DISTON—hails from Fulton, N. Y., where he has played three years of varsity football for Fulton High School. He later played three years of service ball in Stroudsburg, Germany which took the ALL EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP in 1952. Don had the honor of being Captain that year.

While at Ithaca College Don has played two years of varsity ball with the Bombers and was chosen Co-Captain. He has shown great talents on the gridiron and has proved himself worthy of the M.V.P. award.

Don is now a sophomore and is Physical Education major. He is an active member with the Varsity Club, Majors Club, Wrestling team, and Phi Epsilon Kappa fraternity.

His ambition upon completion of school is to become a coach in big time football.

HANK HOTALING—hails from Voorheesville, N. Y. It was there where Hank got his start in sports. He played four years of varsity sports in baseball, basketball and football for Voorheesville Central High School.

Hank is now a senior and is a Physical Education major at Ithaca. He has been active in sports here as in high school. Here he has earned himself three major letters in baseball, soccer, and basketball, and has surely proved himself a worthy winner of the M.V.P. award.

Hank is a member of the Majors Club, IDEO, and Delta Kappa Fraternity.

His ambition upon completion of school is to become a coach in the High School systems.

At I. D. E. O.'s meeting of November 30, a change was made in the scheduled forthcoming trip to the Corning Glass Works. The time of departure will be 11:30 instead of the previous announced time. This change will enable the organization to arrive back on campus between 4:00 and 4:30 p.m.; so that working members may get to work on time and so that the women may be in time for dining hall.

Members who are interested may bring one guest. The charge for transportation will be 50c per person. The bus will leave from the Seneca Gym on Sunday, December 11. Contact Barbara Bole, telephone 49124, for reservations.

Projects during the remainder of December will be the annual Christmas caroling at the home for Elderly Women, the Hospital, and the Reconstruction Home; the annual joint Phi Mu Alpha-SAI caroling on campus, and the Christmas house party.

The Ithaca Hillel Organization was formed last February. Previously Hillel had been a branch of the Cornell organization. Now they are an independent group but are still able to participate in Cornell functions.

The purpose of the club is to develop both culturally and socially. Along the cultural line, the club plans to have guest speakers, debates, and meetings with groups of other faiths to discuss the problems of the day. Also they are stressing attendance at Friday night services. Socially, they are planning informal dances at the Temple on Sunday afternoons, brunches, theater parties, and bowling and skating parties.

The present officers are: Bob Ross, President, Marsha Bear, Secretary, and Alan Berkowitz, Treasurer. At the next meeting there will be an election of officers.

Meet the Bombers

by Dave Feldman

Dual Threat

"This is the first in a series of articles dedicated to introducing members of the 1955-56 I. C. varsity Basketball team, so that those new in school may become more familiar with their ball-players."

BOB BURNELL—"78 inches of red-headed fury," is the way I like to describe our big likeable Center. Affectionately dubbed "Red Dog" for obvious reasons, Bob has blossomed into one of the main cogs in the I.C. basketball machine. Both his pivot play and his yeoman-like job off the boards are valuable assets to the Bombers. Bob is a senior, majoring in business administration, and hails from Brooklyn, N. Y., where he attended St. Francis prep. This is his 4th season of basketball for I.C., and after a mediocre 2½ seasons, seems to have acquired that all important intangible known as confidence. To attest to his popularity, he was elected Co-Captain by his teammates, which makes the second consecutive year he has received this honor.

ALDEN CHADWICK—"Chad" is the perfect example of a ball-player whom you read about in stories by Frank Merriwell. The player who spends countless hours practicing every possible spare minute to better himself and help his team. He's the kind of player you want on your team, because he's a team man right from the start. Last year Chad averaged 24 points per ball game, yet actually had to be told to shoot more. Possessor of an unstoppable hook shot with either hand he has practiced driving to such an extent that he is even more dangerous than before. On the foul line, it is almost a certain 2 points every time he is fouled. Al is also a senior majoring in business administration and a native of Lakemont, N. Y. He attended Dundee High School and served with the Marines during the Korean conflict.

Chad was Co-Captain with Bob Burnell last season.

The first home game of the season is tomorrow night at Boynton Junior High School against Rider College of Trenton. Both Chadwick and Burnell will be counted upon heavily to provide the scoring punch for the Bombers.

Girls Participate In Sports

The following girls participated in Field Hockey and Volleyball this Fall. They received awards at the Christmas Party ending the fall season.

HOCKEY

VOLLEYBALL

Barbara Bole, Joan Bush, Doreen Bryan, Ginger Colapinto, Vera Cummerton, Elizabeth Darling, Ruth Eastbury, Marlene Elchysen, Connie Fuller, Carol Gordon, Janice Haase, Mary Hall, Norma May, Sylvia Parks, Sue Tasca.

The W. A. A. "What's my Song" Christmas Party held at the Seneca Gym, December 1, was very successful and all those who attended were afforded a good time.

Prizes were awarded to the girls on the basis of originality and cuteness of costumes. Donna Colquhoun won first prize for originality. Her song was entitled, "Grandfather's Clock." Lois Callahan, Carolyn Parkman, and Beth Catsiff dressed as "Sleepy Time Gals," tied Ruth Eastbury and Carol Gordon ("Too Young") for first place honors and for "cuteness."

Bombers Lose 87-72

The I. C. Basketball Team lost their opening game of the season at Wilkes, 87-72.

Despite the apparent lopsided score, the game was close until the final two minutes of play when Wilkes outscored the Bombers by 10 points. The Bombers were particularly poor from the foul line where they scored only 16 of 27 foul shots.

Sam Burnell played fine ball for the Bombers. He scored 21 points and grabbed 17 rebounds. Al Chadwick was second highest scorer with 17 points. Al Marsh had the best shooting percentage of the night for Ithaca, hitting for 7 of 12 shots from the field.

The Bombers play their first home game tomorrow night against Rider.

Gymnastics Team Perfor

The Ithaca College Gymnastics Team, under the coaching of Karl Brittell, performed on their first visiting exhibition of the season at Genoa Central School, Nov. 18.

The team performed on the side springboard, the parallel bars, tumbling, mimetics, and dual stunts.

Anyone interested in playing Lacrosse at Ithaca College please sign the list either on the bulletin board in the Annex or in Seneca Gym. Experience is not necessary, but only the wish to play.

Bruce Follmer, production manager, announces that Scampers is well underway. Scripts and music have been selected, the casts have been chosen, and rehearsals have started. Most of the important crew heads have been chosen. The student body has shown enthusiasm but there is still a great deal of work to be done.

Volunteers may contact Bruce Follmer, Jack Kutz, or Bill Elliott. Watch for the special Scampers Issue coming out after Christmas vacation.

Sport Shorts

by Dave Feldman

The Philadelphia Warriors, paced by their great 1-2 scoring punch, Paul Arizin and Neil Johnston, are the talk of the young NBA season. After dropping their opener, Philadelphia won their next eight in a row before upended by Minneapolis and are currently in the first place in the Eastern Division. In the Western division, the St. Louis Hawks with the addition of Dick Ricketts complementing their great scoring by Peltit and Selvy, have forged to the top...

Collegiate football has bowed out until next fall with clash at Miami on New Year's Day as Maryland plays host to the Oklahoma Sooners in the Orange Bowl in what may prove to be the best game of the day. At Pasadena, All-American Earl Morrell leads Michigan State and its multiple offense against hard running ULCA, Pacific Coast Champs in the Rose Bowl...

Collegiate Basketball has taken over the limelight now, and all teams will be in action by this weekend. Preseason crystalballing shows San Francisco as Number 1 team to beat for National honors. Kentucky should reign again in the South, although NC States Wolfpack will bear watching. The midwest looks like a battle between Iowa and Illinois, while here in the east, George Washington, Fordham and Duquesne appear best. Syracuse may prove to be "sleeper" team if things jell right...

The Brooklyn Dodgers keep the winter Hot Stove League boiling with proposal for an unprecedented covered stadium which could be used for all sports. A huge dome would prevent games from being rained out, and would provide greater seating capacity. The big difficulty lies in where to build it...

The Champion Cleveland Browns are finding it very hard to sew up their divisional title, as they had to battle for a 35-35 tie game with the Giants, while the second place surprising Redskins crept closer by downing Pittsburgh...

Model United Nations

Model United Nations delegates met for the last time in General Assembly on November 19, to debate resolutions on the self-determination of Algeria, the Special United Nations Fund for Economic Development, and the West Irian question.

Mina Goldman chaired this final meeting of the second Model U. N. conference which was held in the Anabel Taylor Auditorium.

Before discussion on the resolution began, Vangala Jaya Ram, a graduate student from India addressed the assembly on the relation of the student and the United Nations.

He emphasized that if the world of tomorrow is to be more peaceful, "it is up to the youth of today to inculcate in themselves the great ideals of international peace and world cooperation."

Each of the three Model United Nations committees chose to present to the General Assembly for debate one of the resolutions the representatives had discussed in committee meetings the evening before.

Paul C. Szasz, graduate student at Cornell, presented the Political and Security Committee's draft resolution recommending that the people of Algeria be granted the right to select the type of government, national status, and internal ruling of their own country.

Following the discussion, representatives passed the resolution by more than a two-thirds vote.

After voting to delete part of the resolution on West Iria brought up through the Ad Hoc committee, representatives passed a resolution which suggested that the governments of Indonesia and the Netherlands resume negotiations right away in an effort to agree on the political status of West Irian.

The Economic and Social Committee presented a resolution dealing with the establishment of the Special United Nations Fund for Economic Development (SUN-FED).

It recommended setting up such a fund to which each country in the Assembly would subscribe to its income. This resolution was passed by a 21 to 3 vote.

The topics discussed in the model Assembly and those which were debated in committee are all international topics which are of interest to the United Nations.

iber. The stories by Shawkat Dalal are of notable quality. Phil Quinn's poetry would stand up against the best college and hold its own with some of the professional.

The editor feels that the magazine is an asset to the college not only as a creative outlet but as an organization through which the students gain valuable experience in critical work, advertising layout and design and business management. The fate of Camerata has not been definitely decided and will not be decided until next week or the week after.

HI! JOIN ME FOR A LUCKY DROODLE?

WHAT'S THIS?

For solution, see paragraph below.

HERE'S A DROODLE THAT PACKS A PUNCH. It's titled: Lucky smoke rings blown by prizefighter with tooth missing. It packs a moral, too: Why knock yourself out looking for a better-tasting cigarette when all you have to do is light up a Lucky? Luckies taste better, first, because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is TOASTED to taste better. So light up a Lucky. It's the winner—and still champion—for better taste!
